

Looking Toward Burlington Island

Former U. S. Senator, Joseph R. Grundy (seated left), points out Burlington Island to other members of the Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Co.'s Bucks County Advisory Board. The group met for luncheon on the lawn behind the Bristol branch office yesterday. Howard C. Petersen (seated right), is president of Fidelity-Philadelphia. Standing from left are Wentworth Johnson, senior vice president and director; Thomas R. James, vice president of Superior Zinc Co., Bristol, and chairman of the Bucks County Board; Duncan Merriwether, director of bank and vice chairman of the board Rohm and Haas Co.; and Harry E. Danner, host, and vice president of the bank in charge of Bucks County offices. (Courier and Times photo)

Two Shows Today
Circus Tent Rises In Lower Bucks

The circus is in town. Yes sir, kids, Clyde Beatty's circus pulled into Lower Bucks County in the wee hours of the morning and dug right in getting ready for today's two performances.

ances on the Route 13 grounds, opposite Edgely Strip.

The two shows, sponsored by Levittown Emergency Squad, will go on at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. Circus officials advised this morning that good seat locations are still available at the gate for matinee and evening performances.

The circus caravan first hit Lower Bucks around 1:30 a.m. today after two performances in Plainfield, N.J., yesterday. The long motorcade, which included 37 large vans of animals and equipment, made the trip down Routes 1 and 13 to Edgely.

The only mishap along the 45-mile trip occurred last night when a trailer broke down outside New Brunswick, N.J. It was picked up later this morning. Aside from that, the circus arrived here well in advance of plans and work on putting on the "Big Top" tent got off to an early start.

As early as 5 a.m. workmen were putting pole pins into the ground.

Clyde Beatty's Circus, billed as the world's largest, has a traveling personnel of several hundred, including scores of circus artists.

Wild Animals

Included in the 12 acres of tents on the Edgely grounds today will be 200 wild animals, 15 elephants and Beatty's 40 lions and tigers.

The three-ring circus, after its two performances here today, leaves for an eight-day stand starting tomorrow in Philadelphia.

Here It is—Circus Day!

Nearly as many people—big and little—watching the big top go up this morning as will be in it this afternoon and evening.

Something positively fascinating about an elephant. We'd like to have a couple of 'em as pets, but we're afraid the distaff side of the house would look at us a bit suspiciously if we rode them home.

Tornadoes still sashaying around in the Midwest and folks out that way have had quite a time of it.

Well sir, like we always say, be thankful you live in Lower Bucks county. Did you ever see such weather in your life anywhere?

Good weekend for the shore, the mountains, for anything you want to name.

Governor Leader vetoes the bill exempting nonresidents from paying the Philadelphia wage tax and nothing at all surprising about it.

Actually, we think the governor did a wise thing for the nonce. The bill was another of those old chestnuts conceived merely to embarrass, not for any useful purpose.

Phillies on a beautiful rampage last night as they clobbered the Pirates 7-3, socked out four home runs, and again demonstrated they'll be up there with the Braves, Reds and Dodgers all the way.

Three more from the floundering Bucs during the weekend and we'd be sitting pretty.

There used to be a time when there wasn't much to see in a small town, but now the gals dress the same everywhere.

Doctor says the human nose is becoming sharper. All the more reason to keep it out of other people's business.

Go ahead — enjoy yourself a drive during the weekend. But take it easy, huh?

Go to church tomorrow.

Good Evening!

Lincoln Tube Opens Today

NEW YORK (UP)—The 100 million dollar third tube of the Lincoln Tunnel opens to traffic today in ceremonies attended by Gov. Averell Harriman of New York and Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey.

The new 8,013-foot tube, which stretches under the Hudson River to join Manhattan and Weehawken, N.J., will increase the annual traffic capacity of the Lincoln Tunnel by 50 per cent and make it the first triple-tube underwater tunnel in the world. It is expected to eliminate the usual Memorial Day weekend traffic jam next week.

The underwater roadway took four years and eight months to build and is the ninth tube in the New York-New Jersey-Long Island area.

Motorcyclist Suffers Fall

A 20-year old Morrisville motorcyclist was seriously injured when he was thrown from his cycle in an accident in Falls Township, yesterday afternoon.

George R. Gancarz, Trenton, with severe lacerations of the forehead and bruises of the back, shoulders and hips. His condition was described as fair.

Gancarz, who resides in Lower Makefield Road, was operating his cycle south of Stony Hill Road near Saw Mill Road when the accident took place.

Police said Gancarz apparently lost control of his cycle as he attempted to pass a slow-moving truck. The cycle struck a culvert and the driver was thrown to the side of the road.

Ellises Hold Off Decision On Religion

Hildy Probably Will Be Reared In Jewish Faith

MIAMI BEACH (UP) — Hildy McCoy Ellis, the six-year-old girl whose interfaith adoption battle attracted the notice of the nation, probably will be reared in the Jewish faith of the couple fighting to keep her as their child.

But the Melvin B. Ellises, who won the right to stay in Florida with Hildy when Gov. Leroy Collins refused to extradite them to Massachusetts to face kidnapping charges, said they will not decide definitely on her religious training at least for a year.

Hildy's real mother is a Roman Catholic. She said after she had permitted the child to be put up for adoption that she did not know at the time that the Ellises were Jewish.

"It is wonderful when the whole family worships together," Ellis said. "Perhaps that will be the deciding factor."

At one point in their long legal battle, the Ellises offered to raise Hildy as a Roman Catholic if they could be permitted to keep her. They are of the conservative Jewish faith.

"She's getting preliminary religious training such as the belief in God, right now," Ellis said.

Two Injured In Collision

Two persons were injured in a collision at Route 13 and Lake St., Bristol early today.

Violet Lovett, 17, of 453 Court A, Bristol Terrace, was treated at lower Bucks County Hospital for a cut knee. Also injured was Matthew Walker, 19, 428 Pond St., Bristol, treated for a cut leg. Police said both were released after treatment. Miss Lovett was a passenger in Walker's car.

Bristol Borough Police investigating the accident said Walker's car pulled out of the Trailblazer Diner about 2:40 a.m. today and headed east of Route 13. Police said a car driven by Andrew H. Watson, 36, of 757 East Kingston St., Philadelphia, rammed into the rear of the Walker car.

Watson was tested at Lower Bucks County Hospital for drunkenness, but tests did not show enough alcohol content to base anything on, police said.

Watson was charged with driving too fast for conditions, following too closely, and reckless driving, police said. Both cars, police said, were total losses.

Dry, Sunny Day Seen For Lower Bucks

Sunny and dry weather was expected to prevail throughout Pennsylvania today with temperatures mostly in the middle 70's.

A high pressure center drifted across the state from the west and brought the clear, dry conditions.

Fair and cool weather with low humidity was expected tonight in most of the state with temperatures ranging from the low 40's in north central portions to the low and mid 50's in the remaining sections.

The outlook for Sunday is for scattered showers and thunderstorms over most of the state with temperatures in the middle 30's.

Chiang Kai-Shek Takes Over Formosa Reins

Ike Summons Advisers On Disarmament

WASHINGTON UP — President Eisenhower today summoned top advisers to an unusual Saturday meeting at the White House to stamp final approval on new American disarmament proposals.

The ideas that came out of the special morning conference will be carried to London where disarmament negotiations with Russia are scheduled to resume Monday.

Presidential disarmament adviser Harold E. Stassen plans to leave here Sunday for the conference.

Besides Stassen, others called to the White House meeting were Secretary of State John Foster Dulles; Deputy Defense Secretary Donald A. Quarles; Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission; Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; and Robert Cutler, the President's adviser on national security matters.

Follows Friday Session

Most of these officials sat in on a three-and-a-half hour meeting at the State Department Friday afternoon to hash over the disarmament problem. Vice President Richard M. Nixon also attended Friday's session. No details were divulged afterwards.

One of the big problems facing the United States is finding an agreed U.S. position on areas for testing out Eisenhower's "open skies" aerial inspection plan. The Russians put forward a proposal accepting the plan on a partial

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 8)

Mistreatment Of Boy, 6, Brings Fine

Woman Pays $100 For Abuses After Long Hearing

A Levittown woman was fined $100 and costs last night on charges of mistreating six-year-old Stewart Shatz, who was entrusted to her care by his Philadelphia father.

Justice of the Peace Earl B. Dougherty, Bristol Township, levied the fine of Mrs. Selma Kaufman, 34, of 47 Young Birch Road, Levittown, after listening to five hours of testimony in a hearing at his offices.

A second charge of assault and battery to the child is being held in abeyance against Mrs. Kaufman until Bristol Township Patrolman John Rice confers with Paul R. Beckert, assistant Bucks County district attorney.

Incidents

Incidents of "alleged cruelty" were brought to light in the hearing.

On May 16, Mrs. Kaufman was accused of tying the Shatz child to the clothes pole with a clothes line. The child was tied around the ankles, waist and hands. Neighbors said the child was kept this way for more than an hour.

The father of the boy, Nathan Shatz, 40, of 1522 Champlott St., Philadelphia, told JP Dougherty he knew nothing of the mistreatment.

In Hospital

Mr. Shatz paid the Mrs. Kaufman and her husband, Morris, 33, $15 a week to take care of Stewart. Shatz's wife is a patient in a Philadelphia hospital.

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 4)

Little Leaguer Hurt In Baseball Game

A Little League baseball player was injured in a game between the First Federal and Worthington teams at the Edgely Field, yesterday.

Alan C. Arwine, 11, Jr., the player, was treated at the Lower Bucks County Hospital for a laceration on the scalp. The Bristol Emergency Squad transported the boy to the hospital.

Heat Wave Kills Children

MONTERREY, Mexico—UP —Schools and most stores closed today in the face of a heat wave that has killed 28 children in four days.

Heat strokes have sent 300 other persons to hospitals and polio has struck 40 persons in the worst outbreak ever reported here.

Temperatures have ranged above 100 degrees for a week, following a drought that has dried up water sources in northern Mexico. The city is under strict water rationing and doctors said the children killed by the heat were virtually "dehydrated."

Bucks County Royalty

Anna Mae Liszewski, 920 Park Ave., West Bristol, put final touches to her hair before going to Rider College's Mayfair Queen Ball at Trenton's Hotel Hildebrecht last night. Miss Liszewski was chosen queen's first attendant at the ball. Queen is Trenton's Mary Lou Murphy. Miss Liszewski was one of 64 candidates for queen. The Bristolian was queen of the Courier and Times' Senior Queen contest last year, when she was a student at Delhaas High School. This year's Senior King and Queen contest closes at midnight tonight. (Courier and Times Photo)

Tornadoes Kill Four In Southwest Sweep

LAWTON, Okla. (UP)—At least 31 tornadoes swept across the storm-battered southwest late Friday, killing four persons, injuring a countless number of others and destroying more than 200 homes and one school.

Several other persons were reported missing and searchers feared the death toll would mount.

Forecasters said the prevailing weather today posed a threat of new twisters over the five-state area of Texas, Oklahoma, Wyoming, Colorado and Kansas.

Lawton Hardest Hit

Friday's outbreak, which followed a wave of tornadoes that struck the area earlier this week, was described by the U.S. Weather Bureau as one of the worst in a single day in years.

Hardest hit was the town of Lawton, in southwest Oklahoma, where all four recorded deaths occurred. Ten others were hurt, four seriously, when three twisters rocketed through the small farming community almost simultaneously.

The new rash of twisters brought to at least 181 the number that has swept across the Southwest this week. More than 50 persons were reported killed in an earlier siege on Monday and Tuesday.

Friday's injured included several airborne persons. Pilot James Ruscoe and stewardess Dianne Durham, of Flushing, N.Y., received head and rib injuries when thrown about the cabin of a chartered C46 plane buffeted by a twister between Amarillo, Tex., and Tucumcari, N.M.

Two Escape In Accident

Two Levittown motorists escaped serious injury when the car they were riding in was demolished in an accident on Route One, near the Old Lincoln Highway, Middletown, yesterday.

Donald Brown, 170 Kenwood Drive, and Edward Burch, 155 Kenwood Drive, were treated at the Lower Bucks County Hospital for minor bruises.

Patrolman George A. Traul, Middletown police, said their car was demolished when it was struck by a truck after the car pulled out onto Route One and in front of the truck.

James Barnett, of Philadelphia, was the truck driver. He was unhurt and the truck received minor damage.

Graham Goes Into Streets

NEW YORK (UP)—Evangelist Billy Graham preached on the garish, neon-lighted city streets of New York Friday night to thousands of persons turned away from his Madison Square Garden crusade.

Standing on a table on the sidewalk just a short distance from "Strippers Row" and the bright lights of Broadway, the 38-year-old North Carolina minister spoke to the vast overflow audience for more than 10 minutes.

"As you are standing here you can be saved tonight! You don't have to be in the Garden—in a church to find God," Graham, with a bible tucked under his arm, told the more than 2,000 persons jamming the streets around the Garden.

U.S. Makes Strong Protest Against Riots

Premier's Cabinet Holds Emergency Session On Crisis

TAIPEI, Formosa (UP)—President Chiang Kai-Shek returned to Taipei today from his retreat in southern Formosa to take personal command in the tense situation arising from the anti-American riots, it was officially announced.

Foreign Minister George Yeh conferred by phone with the gencladissimo at his vacation home on Sun Moon Lake during the height of the demonstrations which erupted in Taipei yesterday.

The United States made a strong protest against the riots in which at least 12 Americans were injured and the U.S. Embassy and other American property wrecked.

Nationalist Chinese officials held to consider the situation and discuss how the breach with the United States could be repaired.

Cabinet Meets

Premier O. K. Yui's cabinet met in emergency session and growing rumors it would resign as a gesture of apology to the American government. However, the prospect of such action appeared less likely by the hour.

It was acknowledged here that the riots left a serious scar on American relations with the government of President Chiang Kai-Shek. The Nationalist Chinese government made it crystal clear it would brook no further disorders.

Taipei was under martial law. Three divisions of Nationalist Chinese troops were brought into the city to guard against any possible new disturbances. Lt. Gen. Huang Tsen Wu, Taipei garrison commander, issued an edict making 10 specific crimes punishable by death.

The city resembled an armed camp. But life was as near normal

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 7)

Derby Time Draws Near

Don't race through the weekend edition of the Courier and Times, but on the last page is a story of two brothers building racers for the Lower Bucks Soap Box Derby.

On Page 18, the story will appeal to young hopefuls and their fathers.

And ladies don't have to feel left out. The social section, Pages 8 and 9, has the news they'll want to read.

Back to the men again, it's sports on Pages 11 and 12. Our regular Saturday feature, a picture section, is on Page 10.

Comics are on Pages 16 and 17, and the entire family can find good reading in today's well-rounded lineup.

INDEX
Amusement	15
Classified	13, 14, 15
Church News	4, 5
Comics	16, 17
Crossword	17
Death Notices	3
Dr. Brady	6
Dr. Crane	6
Fred Othman	6
Earl Witman	6
Editorials	6
Jacoby On Bridge	15
Junior Reporter	17
Magazine Page	18
Pictorial Review	10
Social, Club News	9, 8
Sports	11, 12
TV	16

House Faces Two Bitter Floor Fights

HARRISBURG — UP — Two bitter floor fights loom in the House next week when the Republican majority plans to pass the state's two year budget and school subsidy legislation.

A wrangle was expected Tuesday over Republican sponsored appropriation bills, with the Democrats prepared to introduce amendments to replace some of the sweeping cuts proposed in the General Fund budget.

The GOP purposely revised their appropriation bill timetable to allow the Democrats time to offer amendments on the bills totaling $1,385,323.03 which have been introduced so far. The overall Republican plan would chop $94,500,000 from Gov. George M. Leader's budget.

House Majority Leader Albert W. Johnson R-McKean predicted the appropriation bills would be passed without any amendments Wednesday, with solid 126-member GOP backing.

An inter-party battle from both sides was expected when the bill totaling $31,300,000 comes up for action.

The Philadelphia and Allegheny County delegations, instrumental in sending the legislation back to committee in its initial appearance, have promised a stiff battle against the amended version.

The two delegations, with a combined 67-member voting bloc, charged the subsidy would be unfair to their counties.

Rep. Maurice H. Goldstein R-Allegheny said he would introduce amendments to make the bill more palatable to his county.

A Philadelphia Democrat, Rep. Herman Toll, said he would "fight like hell" against the legislation, adding that it would be "here for weeks" and the House would not adjourn by June 15 as Republican leaders planned. Johnson said the GOP policy called for passage of the subsidy over any and all opposition. The House quit for the week after a brief solo session yesterday. It will reconvene Monday at 1 p.m. (EDT) and the Senate two hours later.

Three Events To Be Noted At Service

REV. CLIFFORD G. HANSEN

The American Baptist Home Mission Society was organized in 1832 and since that time it has helped to organize 6,113 churches in the United States. One of these is the First Baptist Church of Levittown-Fairless Hills.

The Philadelphia Baptist Association was organized by five Baptist Churches in 1707. Today the Association serves more than 125 churches in the metropolitan area of Greater Philadelphia. The Levittown Church is voluntarily affiliated with both the American Baptist Convention and the Philadelphia Baptist Association.

The Rev. O. John Eldred, pastor and honorary chairman of the service, has announced that the event will begin with the Invocation followed by the serving of the anniversary dinner. The program will include the singing of "Old Baptist Hymns" and solos by Mrs. Fred Kostaras and Mr. William Bell. Mrs. Edward Lord will accompany them at the organ. Following the key address by the Rev. Hansen, the pastor will close the Service by pronouncing the Benediction.

Dinner arrangements are being handled by a committee from the Women's Council. Mrs. William Carolus is chairman assisted by Mrs. R. M. Wiley, Mrs. Harold Turner, Mrs. Richard Staveth, Mrs. Hughie Miller, and Mrs. John Church.

The First Baptist Church of Levittown-Fairless Hills will have a special commemorative service tomorrow at 6:30 P.M. to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the American Baptist Convention, the 125th Anniversary of the American Baptist Home Mission Society, and the 250th Anniversary of the Philadelphia Baptist Association.

Guest Speaker

The Rev. Clifford G. Hansen, secretary of Public Relations for the American Baptist Home Mission Society, will be the guest speaker at this three-fold Baptist Anniversary service. Before assuming his present position in 1951, the Rev. Hansen was director of the Juvenile Protection program of the Home Mission Society. He is a graduate of Eureka College in Illinois and the Colgate - Rochester Divinity School in Rochester, N.Y.

The American Baptist convention was organized in May, 1907, in Washington, D.C. The first president was Charles Evans Hughes, then governor of New York and later Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Since that time its unified budget has increased from a million and a half dollars to nearly nine million for 1957.

Check The Prices At Farmers Market

If you're going shopping at the Bristol Farmers Market and Auction, take note of this!

In the market's advertisement on Page 7 yesterday, two items were incorrectly given. Instead of the prices given yesterday, "Little Darin" is 55 cents as record of the week, and sun glasses are 11 cents.

Twp. Board Will Have Face Lifting

By GORDON PARKER
Courier And Times Staff Writer

The Bristol Township Board of Commissioners, a hotbed of controversy, will undergo a major face lifting at the end of this year. At least four and possibly six of the present 11 members will step out of the picture next January.

Terms of six commissioners, four Democrats and two Republicans, expire the end of this year.

2 Drop Out

Two of the six, Lawrence Mervine, a Republican, and Albert H. Rogers, a Democrat, did not seek re-election.

The post of another, Elbert J. Kohli, will be eliminated when his term expires. A fourth, Democrat John S. Gallagher, lost out in Tuesday's primary election and won't be on the ballot for the November election.

The fate of the fifth, James T. Dunlavey, of the Second Ward, is still uncertain.

Dunlavey ended in a tie with George E. Lukens, Croydon Jeweler, in Tuesday's voting for the Democratic nomination. This race must still be decided by either a recount of the ballots or by drawing numbers.

Only one commissioner, Republican Fred K. Hibbs, of the Sixth Ward, is assured of a chance to return.

Even if Dunlavey wins the nomination, he and Hibbs both face tough election fights this fall.

Four Democrats and one Republican will carry over for another two years. They are: Board president Eugene S. Kehoe, Wayne Locke, Harold Lefcourt and Joseph McGeever, Democrats, and Rudolph Kraus, Republican.

Kohli who was elected from the old Sixth Ward as an Independent has been a lame duck since January, 1955. At that time the court approved splitting the Sixth Ward in five parts. This created a new Sixth Ward, the Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Wards.

10-Member Board

Kohli continued to represent the old Sixth Ward while Commissioners were appointed from the new wards. Kohli's post will be dropped the end of this year and the board will then consist of ten members—one from each ward.

Rogers, who represents the Fourth Ward, will be succeeded by either Albert Cliver, Democrat, or James Monte, Republican, winners in Tuesday's voting who will face each other in the general election.

Mervine, from the Eighth Ward, shot at prothonotary's office in the primary. He lost in the race for the county office and next year will be replaced on the township board by either Walter Taylor, Republican, or Louis Rossi, Democrat.

Tenth Ward

Gallagher, from the Tenth Ward, was defeated for the Democratic nomination, by William J. O'Neill. O'Neill will now square off against Francis X. Chester, Republican, who was unopposed in the primary.

Hibbs will be opposed by Leonard Sokolove, who defeated Joseph Dooley for the Democratic nomination Tuesday.

Dunlavey or Lukens will fight it out with Republican Julius Mehalke.

Births Delaware Valley Hospital

May 15

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Borges, 17 Nearwood Lane, North Park, Levittown, a boy, Roy Anthony. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amistadi, 380 Lakeside Drive, Levittown, a boy, Frank Edward.

May 16

Mr. and Mrs. John White, 2106 B. Sunrise Road, Northeast Village, Philadelphia, a girl, Valerie Lee.

May 19

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vogel, 25 Kentucky Lane, Kenwood, Levittown, a girl, Cheryl Lynn.

May 20

Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Schwartz, 1041 Bristol Pike, Andalusia, a girl, Regina Marie.

Bristol War Mothers To Hold Service

Members of the Bristol Chapter, American War Mothers and Gold Star Mothers have been asked to meet at the Bristol Cemetery tomorrow at 2 p.m. for their yearly memorial service.

Mrs. Theresa Clay and Mrs. Hannah Henderson attended the War Mothers Convention which took place in Pittsburgh recently.

House GOP Rallies For Defense Of Full Budget

Five Generations Smile

Five generations of Lower Bucks Countians smile at the thought. The youngest member, Baby Deborah Marie Horlacher, was born May 10. Holding the infant is her mother, Mrs. Harry Horlacher. Great-Great Grandmother Mrs. Cecelia Meidt, is at right. Standing left is the baby's grandmother, Mrs. Vincent Cooke, and at right is Great Grandmother Mrs. John Erfurt. (Courier and Times photo)

19 Area Men Face Trials In Court

Nineteen men are scheduled for criminal court trials Monday through Wednesday for alleged crimes in Lower Bucks County.

Trials include: Monday: Clarence Gordon and Albert Schumpert, Philadelphia, burglary in Levittown; Edward Cerula, 92 Pinewood Drive, Levittown, receiving stolen goods; Carlos Brown, 2458 Airacobra St., Bloomsdale Gardens, failure to identify himself at the scene of an accident; Alfred James, 514 Court B, Bristol Terrace 2, drunken driving; Louis Rodriguez, Camden, drunken driving in Bristol township; David Grafenstine, 612 Central Ave., Croydon, assault and battery, and Joseph Cottle, Trenton, driving with a suspended license in Morrisville.

Tuesday: Wentzel Briar, Frosty Hollow Road, Middletown, fornication and bastardy; Walter Van Doren, 303 Walnut St., Bristol, same charge; George F. Coulter, N. Radcliffe St., Edgely, driving after suspension.

Wednesday: Carl A. Dietrich, 9 Queenbridge Road, Levittown, Leon Marek, Oxford Valley Road Langhorne, and William I. Brown, 5 Trenton road, Hulmeville, larceny and receiving stolen goods; Edward G. Deiter, 412 Court A, Bristol Terrace 2, burglary; Leo Dougherty, 2 Mintleaf Road, Levittown, aggravated assault and battery; Emma Gartner, 405 Wyoming Ave., Croydon, fraud; George Gurne, 78 North Park Drive, Levittown, assault and battery, and John M. Post, 520 Lincoln Ave., Hulmeville, drunken driving.

Plans On Outing Set For Safety Patrols

Plans have been completed for the first annual outing of 1,400 safety patrol members from the Lower Bucks County Schools at Willow Grove Park; Monday afternoon.

The boys and girls who belong to the area's public and parochial school safety patrols are to be treated an afternoon's outing at the amusement park.

Funds For Trip

Funds to finance the trip have been secured through contributions by police, business and civic groups throughout Lower Bucks County.

The safeties will be given free access to all the amusements at Willow Grove Park and will be served lunch and refreshments.

All of the Lower Bucks County police departments are to be represented at the affair. Many businessmen and civic club representatives will be there.

$2,700 Contributions
Chief Edward Wunsch, public-

Mistreatment

(Continued from Page One)

JP Dougherty questioned the boy about bruises on his body.

Mrs. Kaufman was arrested Tuesday by Officer John Rice, Bristol Township police. Rice made the arrest after he and Mrs. Margaret Stead, Bucks County Juvenile Probation officer, investigated complaints made by neighbors.

Mr. Shatz has taken Stewart to live with an aunt in Philadelphia. The boy said he "likes living with his Aunt Betty and doesn't want to go back to the Kaufmans."

Falls Legion To Observe Memorial Day

A Memorial Day observance by Falls Township American Legion Post 834 will get under way 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with a flag raising.

The flag raising ceremony will be held at the Thriftmart on Trenton Road. The Fairless Hills VFW Drill Team and Firing Squad will participate.

A parade, featuring more than 30 marching units will then form and proceed to the area cemetery where there will be a wreath laying and salute by the firing squad.

Grand Marshal General Blumel will be the guest speaker at the Doughboy Meeting House Square, at 2:45 p.m.

Units to participate in the parade include: Falls Township Police Force, Fairless VFW Unit, Pennsbury High Band, William Penn Junior High Band, Morrisville High Band.

Falls Township American Legion, U.S. Marine Unit, U.S. Navy Unit, Navy Air Units, Morrisville American Legion, VFW and Starettes, U.S. Army Guided Missile Unit, Nike Ajax Guided Missile, Air Force float, jet plane.

Levittown Rescue Squad, Falls Civil Defense Unit, Bucks County Rescue Squad, Civil Air Patrol, Morrisville Sea Scouts, Fairless Fire Co., Falls Fire Co., Falls, Levittown and Morrisville Boy Scouts, Girls Scouts, Brownies and Cub Scouts, Levittown, Tullytown and Yardley Fire Companies.

Police Catch Shoplifter

A shoplifting spree which had been going on for "some time" in stores in the Levittown Shopping Center was punctured yesterday with the arrest of a Trenton woman on a charge of petty larceny.

The woman, Nancy Tafrow, 153 South Cook Ave., admitted to Tullytown Police Chief John Walterick and officer John Steen she had taken $4.18 in merchandise from Pomeroy's Department Store.

Merchandise

John Hughes, controller at Pomeroy's, said the woman took three greeting cards, one pair of sun glasses, and one other type of card.

The arrest was made about 3:15 p.m. and the woman was taken before Earl B. Dougherty, Edgely Justice of the Peace.

The store has been disturbed by several incidents of shop lifting but this is the first arrest made recently on the charge.

The woman admitted the charge, promised to make restitution, and was released in the custody of Chief Walterick until she can raise the money.

Restitution

Mr. Hughes, on behalf of the store, agreed to accept $50 as complete restitution along with the $4.18 cost of the items taken.

Court costs of $15 were levied against the Trenton woman.

Knowland In New Clash With Ike

WASHINGTON — UP — House Republican leaders organized today for an uphill fight to save President Eisenhower's defense budget from what he called crippling cuts.

At the same time Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland (Cal.) clashed again with Eisenhower on a budget issue.

Knowland, who has called repeatedly for a three billion dollar cut in the overall budget, said he opposed the President's request for authority to veto individual items in appropriations bills.

House leaders admitted their prospects of reversing a $2,587,000,000 defense cut were just about nil. Administration forces were planning to make their main stand later in the Senate.

Sen. Estes Kefauver accused Eisenhower of showing "misguided . . . tolerance" in permitting Knowland and cabinet members to attack his policies.

Kefauver said in a prepared speech in Chattanooga, Tenn., that the President allowed Knowland, Treasurer Secretary George M. Humphrey and Commerce Secretary Sinclair Weeks "to explode in a rash of 'cut that budget' declarations."

Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams Friday night called on all Republicans to rally to the support of Eisenhower's overall budget program. He said "reputation of our party promises and programs will end in nothing but political suicide."

But the President got little backing in the House Friday for his plea to restore half the cuts made in the defense budget. The House opened debate on the big money bill Friday and a final vote is expected Wednesday.

Republican leaders were working backstage to force a test on the issue. Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. (Mass.) said amendments will be offered to restore some or all the curtailed funds listed by the President as critical. These related mainly to Air Force procurement.

Martin said if the funds aren't restored on the customary non-record vote, he will engineer a roll call on the issue prior to the bill's final passage.

Secret Papers Rifled

The compound was littered with office equipment and documents hurled from the windows by the inflamed mob. Unable to gain entry into the embassy code room because of the iron door, a number of rioters smashed through a wall and scattered top secret papers, including the American code, to the winds.

Automobiles and trucks in the compound were set afire. The United States flag was torn down and a Nationalist banner run up in its stead.

Many Americans were man-handled in the streets. Crowds menaced Americans in automobiles.

Before the riots were quelled, the mob also had vented its fury on the Taipei police headquarters. Rioters stormed the police station demanding the release of a number of demonstrators who had been arrested.

Police opened fire. Two Chinese were killed.

At least 10,000 Chinese participated in the rioting. They left the U.S. Embassy, the U.S. Information Agency headquarters and other American buildings in shambles. They smashed and burned American automobiles, attacked basis and now are waiting for a U.S. reply.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Police opened fire. Two Chinese were killed.

At least 10,000 Chinese participated in the rioting. They left the U.S. Embassy, the U.S. Information Agency headquarters and other American buildings in shambles. They smashed and burned American automobiles, attacked basis and now are waiting for a U.S. reply.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Smith Case Gun Supplier Is Paroled

Joseph F. Cumiskey, Philadelphia, who supplied the pistol which killed Mrs. Ethel Smith on Sept. 9, was paroled from Bucks County Prison yesterday after serving the minimum term of a two to 23-month sentence.

Cumiskey was sentenced on charges of conspiracy and accessory before the fact of murder.

He gave William R. Smith, 28, of Levittown, the gun with which Smith killed his wife in Bristol.

Smith is awaiting sentence after pleading guilty to a murder charge.

Cumiskey gave Smith the gun, a .38 caliber revolver, the night before the murder, after showing Smith how to fire it. He said he gave it to Smith "to scare his wife."

The Philadelphiaian told President Judge Edward G. Biester yesterday that he had "learned my lesson," and promised to avoid possible trouble in the future.

But the President got little backing in the House Friday for his plea to restore half the cuts made in the defense budget. The House opened debate on the big money bill Friday and a final vote is expected Wednesday.

Republican leaders were working backstage to force a test on the issue. Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. (Mass.) said amendments will be offered to restore some or all the curtailed funds listed by the President as critical. These related mainly to Air Force procurement.

Martin said if the funds aren't restored on the customary non-record vote, he will engineer a roll call on the issue prior to the bill's final passage.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over Siberia, a small portion of Western Russia and most of Europe. In return, Soviet inspectors would be permitted to fly over Alaska and the entire western half of the United States.

Under the Soviet proposal, American inspectors would be permitted to fly over